

As a Flight Attendant I would hate to have to wait for someone to finish their call so I can take their drink order. Also, no one would listen to the inflight safety demos. People would be talking so loud on their phones because their ears are plugged! Please don't allow this to happen.